

First Nations Health Authority
Health through wellness

The First Nations Health Authority is a diverse and transformational health organization of professional, innovative and dedicated team members and leaders.

The first of its kind in Canada, FNHA works as a health-and-wellness partner with BC First Nations to support self-determination and decision-making to improve health outcomes.

Employment Opportunity

Dental Therapist Central Northern Region, BC

You are a self-motivated and detail driven individual with a strong passion for healthcare. You are seeking a role in which you will work with each community to reduce access to dental care barriers faced by First Nations individuals in BC. This exciting opportunity is open to applicants across BC as it will involve supporting multiple communities throughout the central northern region and will require travel to provide support to those communities.

In this role you will provide preventative and treatment focused professional services, as well as administer the upstream-focused Children's Oral Health Initiative in a number of well-established dental therapy programs in the First Nations community dental clinics. You will help shape the program from a medical model toward an upstream wellness based approach to care.

Education & Experience

- Completion of a recognized Dental Therapy training program.
- Licensure as a Dental Therapist with the College of Dental Surgeons of British Columbia (CDSBC)
- Possess a valid unrestricted driving license for automobiles (Class 5)

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM US

Joining our family means joining an organization that supports personal growth, in-house training, a paid volunteer day and a unique full-day orientation program.

Leading with culture, all FNHA employees complete San'yas Indigenous Cultural Safety Training. We support our family to be leaders in wellness and all staff members develop a yearly wellness plan as part of their performance partnership and goal-setting.

FNHA offers competitive salary, pension, extended health benefits and employee supports for mental wellness including an EAP and cultural supports.

JOIN OUR HISTORIC JOURNEY

At FNHA, you'll have the opportunity to contribute to BC's history. With a unique governing structure and mandate, our fluid work environment means you can play an active role in real change.

Our talented teams value respect and foster lateral kindness in their working relationships. Our holistic approach to wellness, based on First Nations teachings, is incorporated into all aspects of work culture. Where else will you get to create a personal wellness plan as part of your performance goals?

If you are looking for more than a job, come join the FNHA family.
